The Platform Noyau de Paix-Isoko ry'Amahoro (NPIA) is a national non-governmental organization for public interest created in 2000. NPIA is composed by 23 organizations and 16 individuals contributing in peace promotion.

Mission

The Principal mission of Noyau de Paix-Isokory'Amahoro is to work for peace promotion and safeguard, human right protection and social wellbeing in Rwanda

Objectives

The objective of the Platform is to contribute to the promotion and safeguard of a sustainable peace in Rwanda through activities related to rights and liberties, citizen participation, fight against poverty, education to peace and values, eventually by taking part to existing sub regional peace initiatives.

Our Theory of Change

Building capacity of civil society promoting peace in Rwanda in order to contribute better to the enhancement of peace and justice practice.

1. NPIA as a dynamic space for dialogue

We organize conferences, debates, round tables, context analyzes, studies around peace challenges in order to understand them and to plan projects to solve them.

2. NPIA as a professional competencies centre

We build capacities of our partners to help them to face peace challenges with professionalism to get ability in peace promotion techniques as Reflecting on Peace Practice, Do no harm...

3. NPIA as a synergy promoter

Our partners in action are organizations promoting peace in Rwanda. We try to organize activities together and to analyze how to construct partnership and alliances between organizations.
